

Curriculum Vitae

Name : Iman Pambagyo
Place/DoB : Tokyo/20 December 1960

Education : - International Politics, McMaster University, Ontario-Canada, 1996
- International Relations, University of Gadjah Mada, Jogjakarta, 1986

Joined the Ministry : March 1987
Area of Work : Trade diplomacy and negotiations

Positions :

- March 1989 – August 1994: Assistant Deputy Director for International Institutions
- June 1996 – May 1998: Assistant Deputy Director for APEC Affairs
- June 1998 – December 2000: Deputy Director for APEC Affairs
- January 2001 – June 2005: Trade & Industry Attache, in Washington, D.C.
- June 2005 – June 2007: Director for General Affairs and Public Relations
- June 2007 – September 2010: Director for Regional Cooperation
- September 2010 – March 2012: Director for ASEAN Cooperation
- March 2012 – July 2014: Director General for International Trade Cooperation
- September 2014 – October 2015: Indonesian Ambassador in Charge of WTO in Geneva
- March 2016 – today: Director General for International Trade Negotiations

Past and Current Assignments:

- ASEAN SEOM Lead for Indonesia
- Indonesia's chief negotiator and trade representative in various fora (bilateral, regional, multilateral, international, commodity)
- ASEAN Co-Chair for ASEAN-US Trade and Investment Framework Arrangement,
- ASEAN Co-Chair for ASEAN-Canada
- Head of Indonesia's National AFTA Unit
- Chair of WTO-G33 Developing Countries – Agriculture
- Special Staff to Minister on Priority Global Trade Policy
- Chair of RCEP Trade Negotiating Committee

Other Assignments:

- President Commissioner of PT Surveyor Indonesia—Persero (since May 2018)
- Chairman, International Coffee Organization (September 2019 – 2020)
- Chairman, Association of Natural Rubber Producing Countries (October 2019 – 2020)

Awards:

- 30 Years of Indonesia's Civil Service Gold Medal (2017)
- The 2017 Gold Standard Award for Policy-Maker of the Year (PublicAffairsAsia, 2017)
