

Carl Cervone

Carl Cervone is the Cofounder and COO of Enveritas. He has a unique quantitative grasp on the drivers of living income and the state of smallholder coffee production globally. Prior to Enveritas, Carl worked at TechnoServe managing a portfolio of coffee projects in Africa and Latin America. He has a BA in environmental science from Wesleyan University and an MBA from Columbia University.